LIFE DELIGHTFUL AT THE BRANDON

Horseback Riding, Driving and Fishing Excursions, Card Parties and Sports.

BASIC CITY, VA., August 2.—With ideal weather, delightful company, and a genial host, life at the Brandon these last days of July has been one of enjoyment. With the breaking of the hot wave outdoor exercise was resumed, and riding and driving parties have been frequent to the various points in this historic region, while the more industrious ones go on walking trips over the mountain. The more sedate form congenial groups on the broad piazzas, discussing the vital questions of the day, such as the probability of war with the Japs, the next President, or the newest stitch in knitting or crocheting. The summer beau, noticeable principally by his scarcity, has given Dan Cupid little opportunity, but sentiment, hard to die, is not yet extinct, and a "Summer Beau Co., Ltd." is talked of for the Brandon. Tennis and bowling are favorite morning enjoyments, and are frequently resorted to. A tennis tournament between the experts at the inn, and those of The Brandon, is being planned for the future. A new feature is to be introduced, as the game will be in the nature of progressive times. Bowling being popular, a competitive party will soon be given for the lovers of this sport. Cards are as much in favor as ever, and parties have been numerous during the past week, both morning and evening—"bridge" apparently crowding to the wall, the erstwhile popular six-handed euchre and five hundred. On Friday evening of last week, the Brandon was the scene of much gaiety. In the lobby and reading-room, a card party, with four tables at bridge, was in progress, and in the ballroom a dance. This dance was the most successful and enjoyable ever given at the Brandon. Invitations had been given to the young people of the Brunswick Inn, and to the young society folk of Waynesboro, and the scene in the ballroom at the opening of the ball was a brilliant one. The bright, charming faces of the young girls in their dainty summer attire, the richer gowns of the matron, making a beautiful picture long to be remembered. Mrs. Walker, of Floyd Avenue, Richmond, chaperoned the beaux and belles of the inn, while Mrs. Rogers, a young society matron of North Carolina, was in attendance upon the Waynesboro contingent. Among the dancers attracting the most attention were Misses Walker, Robinson, Jelles Scott, Ophelia Minor, all future debutantes and belles of Richmond society. Among the young matrons dancing were Mrs. Charles Guy, of Richmond; Mrs. Edwin Whitney, of Washington; Mrs. E. K. Cook, of New York City; and Mrs. Alfred Palmer, of the North State. Saturday evening, always a gala time at resorts with the coming of husbands, sweethearts or friends for the week's end visit, was the occasion of a subscription card party, which was an enjoyable affair. Preparations were made for six tables, and to one watching the eagerness of the players, and the beautiful gowns worn by the women, the scene was a spirited one. Among those taking part in the game were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Guy, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Minor, Mr. and Miss Riddick, Mrs. Ford, Mr. Sam Lacy, all of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Col. Geo. Moffitt, Mrs. Blackburn, Mrs. Palmer, Miss Moon, Mrs. Hough, Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Whitney; Messrs. Jordan, Mr. Hibler and Mrs. Hibler. The prizes were attractive. The first, a fine gold bronze clock, was captured by Miss Minor; the second, a silver-mounted hat brush, went to Miss Moon, while Mrs. Cahill carried off the consolation. The evening's enjoyment ended with an impromptu dance. Sunday evening was observed by a concert given in the ballroom. Mrs. Adolph Klein, an accomplished pianist, gave a number of choice selections from oratorios; Mrs. Geo. Jordan playing first on the mandolin, then the piano. Miss Henry Boyd Ayer gave some choice selections on the piano. Miss Ayer also added to the pleasure of the evening by rendering several songs in a voice that was very pleasing. Mr. Carroll Montague, Mr. Philip Powers, prominent in Richmond circles, were cordially received by their friends of the Brandon on their arrival Saturday last. The ladies of the Methodist Church, Basic, gave a lawn party Tuesday evening, which was well patronized by the Brandon guests. The evening was enlivened by sale of refreshments and by balloon ascensions. Miss McCall, Mrs. Winney, Miss Imogene Riddick, Miss Kidwell, Messrs. George and Lewis Jordan, Mr. Lyons and Mr. Yoder, all Brandon guests, attended the hop at the Brunswick inn on Tuesday evening. Wednesday evening an observation party was given by one of the Brandon families, and proved to be quite a pleasant affair. There were three prizes. The first fell to Mrs. Chas. Todd, of Richmond; the second to Miss Moon, of Virginia; while Mrs. Broth, Washington, was the fortunate winner of the consolation. It is understood a number of parties by invitation will be given during August, which, with other entertainments, will make the month gay. Early Wednesday morning a party of young men of the Brandon started out on a "fisherman's luck" enterprise, returning at midday with a fine string to the delight of all the guests.

MUCH PLEASURE AT OLD SULPHUR

Driving and Riding Are the Most Popular Pastimes.

YELLOW SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., August 3.—The register for the past few days here shows that August, the queen month of the summer resort season, will fulfill the promise of bringing to the Yellow more than the usual number of guests. Each back brings its quota of well-to-do, and a large number of those here now are booked for a much longer stay than usual. Many visitors from the far South who have been lingering at the seashore and taking in the exposition are due to arrive within the next few days; also a number of Norfolk people, who are closing their homes in the City by the Sea and coming to the mountains for the rest which they feel they need after the strenuous life they have been leading, entertaining their relatives, and friends at the great fair. Driving and horseback riding have been more popular pastimes this summer. Some of the most beautiful scenery in Virginia is to be found within the radius of a few miles of the Yellow, and trips to Christiansburg, the Montgomery White Sulphur, Martinsburg and Blacksburg, the location of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, are points of interest that can be visited in a morning or afternoon, and the roads to each lie through a section of the Allegheny Mountains that rivals in beauty any in the country. Visitors to the grounds and buildings of the V. P. I. are most cordially welcomed, and those in charge take pleasure in showing them around. The new agricultural hall, the creamery and the experimental plots at the farm are special objects of interest to the Virginia people, and the latter feel they have a personal share in the work being carried on there. Among the arrivals this week, none have received a more cordial welcome than Mr. and Mrs. John T. Carter and Miss Bessie Carter, of Danville. The Carters have been here a number of seasons and look upon the place as a summer home. Other former visitors are Mrs. C. H. Bull and family, of Norfolk; and Mr. W. S. Moore, of Wytheville; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughn, of Roanoke; and Mr. and Mrs. Reaves Holt, of St. Louis. It will be a matter of regret to the many friends of the latter to hear that their little girl is quite sick, and their visit here at this time is made in the hope that she will be benefited. Besides the usual number of informal card parties, bowling, croquet and other entertainments the week was marked by a very delightful bowling party given Wednesday morning by Mrs. George Ivy, of New Orleans. After a very spirited contest the first prize for the ladies was presented to Mrs. Lawrence, and the consolation to Mrs. Gregory, of Norfolk. The prize for the men went to Mr. R. S. Moore. Arrivals for the week include: L. H. Vaughn, Radford; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughn and child, Roanoke; S. Humphrey, H. S. Howard, Roanoke; S. M. Lawrence and wife, Roanoke; T. S. Taylor and wife, Norfolk; W. J. Jordan and family, South Boston; B. F. Garnett, Pulaski; W. J. Hensinger, J. W. Henley, J. E. Moyler, George D. Stevens, Roanoke; J. R. McVane, Lynchburg; C. E. Carter, E. D. Baker and wife, family, Norfolk; Mrs. Garland Reed and family, Mrs. C. L. Lamberdin and family, Carter, Saville; E. D. Baker and wife, Mason Ward, West Virginia; A. L. Stira, H. Austin, Roanoke; Mary Nichols, Syracuse; R. S. Nollis, South Boston.

HIGH-WATER MARK AT BRUNSWICK INN

Enjoyable Hop — Automobile Drive and Other Events Make Week Pleasant.

BRUNSWICK INN, WAYNESBORO, VA., August 3.—The tide of summer guests has about reached high-water mark in this cozy little Blue Ridge hostelry. Every day adds its quota to the charming party already assembled, and the summer slips by swiftly and pleasantly. The hop given Monday night was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Among the dancers were Misses Margaret and Josephine Packard, of Baltimore; Misses Edith Taylor, Jellis Scott, Imogene Riddick, Katharine Robinson, Mayme Pickett Jones, Nellie and Mamma Walker, of Richmond; Mrs. Richard C. Taylor, Miss Helen Taylor, Mrs. Theodore Garnett, Mrs. James Elliott Heath, of Norfolk; Miss Kidwell and Mrs. E. T. Whitney, of Washington; Misses Grace Vest, Annie Coyner, Templeton and Baker, of Waynesboro; Lewis Jordan, Walter Ellison, Childrey Scott, Dr. Bowman, Du Pont Gelsier, Jefferson Loth and Morris Loth. Mrs. Joseph Packard gave a driving party to Mountain Top on Thursday. Mrs. Kenneth Bain and Mrs. James Elliott Heath are among the best equestrians this season. Miss Rachel Walker, of Richmond, entertained some of her little friends Tuesday with an automobile party. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were Misses Rosa Mosley, Katie Taylor, Isabel Williams and Elizabeth Chinery. On the register since last week are M. D. Hart, Ashland, Va.; Rev. Edgar

A. Potts, Charlottesville, R. A. Taylor, Wirt E. Taylor, T. J. Walker, Arthur Scrivener, Thomas W. Purcell, Anton Adams, H. M. Taylor, J. R. Riddick, of Richmond; Leigh W. Reid, Havreford, Pa.; C. C. Douglass, W. S. Parker, J. M. Burton, J. W. Rogers, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Richard C. Taylor, Miss Helen Taylor, of Norfolk; W. B. Barnes, of Suffolk.

Buckingham.
BUCKINGHAM, VA., August 3.—The marriage of Miss Mary Morgan, of Andersonville, and Rev. William P. Province is announced to take place at the home of a bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morgan, on September 3d. Rev. Province is in charge of the Methodist work on this charge, and is a capable and popular young man. Miss Morgan is a talented and well-known young lady, and has a host of friends.

W. J. Hubbard has been under the weather for several days, but is out again. The youngsters of this vicinity enjoyed a pleasant picnic in Garnett's woods, near here, yesterday, in honor of a number of young guests of the children of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Garnett, Jr.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church gave a lawn party on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Smith, near here, for the benefit of the Ladies' Society. Quite a handsome sum was realized from the sale of cream, etc.

The yearly meeting of the Buckingham Holiness Association will begin on August 18th, and last probably two weeks. Mr. Thomas Ellis, of Birmingham, is a guest at Atton, his old home. Miss Fannie Fitzgerald is visiting friends at Norfolk and taking in the exposition.

Tettington.
TETTINGTON, VA., August 3.—Some threshing has been done in this section, but the yield and quality of wheat is not as good as expected. The cornfields show a ragged stand and some bud worms; but the weather for the past three weeks has been ideal for corn, and present prospects bid fair for an average crop of corn. Mrs. Acre and sister, Miss Acre, of Richmond, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dobson at Bambrury. Mrs. W. B. Moores and sister, Miss Grace Nelson, of Richmond, who have been visiting at "The Rowe" for the past two weeks, left Tuesday last for a visit with Mr. George A. Haines in Warwick county. Mrs. Addie Williams and brother, Pendon Williams, of Richmond, are here on a visit to their aunt, Mrs. William A. Christian. Miss Alice Clark, of Halifax county, is expected here to-day to visit her brother, Mr. C. L. Clark, at Bambrury. The many friends and relatives of Mr. Walter Gary, of West Point, Va., are sorry to hear that he is very ill, and wish him an early recovery. Mr. W. L. Wilkinson, of this place, who has been very sick since the 4th of July, for threatened with typhoid fever, is better and now fast recovering.

Ellerson.
ELLERSON, VA., August 3.—Most of the farmers have finished threshing wheat. The weather has been dry and the wheat has been saved in the condition. Corn is very backward, and there is a poor prospect for watermelons, which will be very late this season. There is practically no fruit of any kind, as the late frosts destroyed it while in the bloom. The tomato crop is large, and they are quite ill, is convalescent. Miss Marian Dawson leaves to-morrow morning for the Buffalo Ridge Springs, via Lynchburg, where she will spend a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Heath will go to Scottsville to-morrow to visit Mr. Heath's parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Swanson, of Danville, spent Sunday with Mr. M. K. Estes. Mrs. Swanson will remain here, in her girlhood home, for a few weeks. The latest advice from Mr. C. M. Smith, who is critically ill in St. Louis, Mo., report his condition as more hopeful.

Mrs. Ed. Entwistle, of Wakefield, Va., is visiting Mrs. Judge B. T. Gordon. Mrs. W. R. Wilson, of Ohio, and Mrs. Samuel Carpenter, of Richmond, Va., both of whom were Nelson county girls, are visiting their many friends in the county.

Miss Nora B. Loving, of Washington, D. C., is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Loving. Seven men were lodged in the Nelson county jail to-day, charged with the robbery of a car on the Chesapeake and Ohio at Gladstone, Va. Miss Hattie Sheffield is home from Charlottesville, Va. Mr. Homer Gleason will attend the Charlottesville Horse Show this week.

New York Horse Cars.
New York, with her subway, her White Way and her many fascinating joys, is a source of varied rainbow-tinted joys to the provincial as long as his purse is not too flat or his head too swollen to admit of his continuing to investigate new fields of advancement or retrace his steps in old familiar ones. But the plodding horse cars of the metropolis cause Homer to laugh when they burst upon the amazed vision of the man who comes out of the West, where cities have sprung from the prairies in the twinkling of an eye and the turf trodden by the aboriginal bison is yet returned by the plow—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lovington.
LOVINGTON, VA., August 3.—A meeting was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. H. E. B. Martin, at Bethlehem Church last week, resulting in thirty-five professions of faith and twenty-four additions to the church. Rev. B. T. Candler, of Lynchburg, Va., will assist the pastor in a meeting at Centenary Church, near Arlington, Va., beginning Sunday, August 4th, at 11 A. M. Dr. W. W. Lear, of Charlottesville, Va., will preach and hold quarterly conference at Bethlehem Church Saturday, the 3d inst. Dr. Lear is an excellent preacher, and a good officer. He is always warmly welcomed in Nelson. He is expected to preach at Centenary at 11 A. M. and 8:15 P. M., and at Bethlehem at 4 P. M. Sunday, August 4th. Hon. H. T. Harris, Superintendent of Schools, gave the examination to eight applicants for teachers' certificates this week. The supply of teachers in Nelson is less than the demand, and a number of her schools will have to be supplied with teachers from other counties. Miss Myrtle Harris, who has been
